The Celtic Radio Music Award is a program sponsored by CelticRadio.net to acknowledge and promote exceptional Celtic music across 6 categories of music. Nominations for this award are made throughout the year by listeners and members of CelticRadio.net. After a careful screening process, which is based upon listener nominations, ratings, requests, and other radio statistics; we select 3 songs in 6 categories for community voting. Categories for an award are Celtic Rock, Traditional, Jigs & Reels, Roots Traditional, Contemporary and Bagpipes.

This year there were a total of 1,379 votes cast across all categories. We were very pleased to learn that when the voting ended on March 17, 2009 (St. Patrick's Day) 'Three Set: Waram Patat/Jeans Reel/Miss Shepherd/Masons Apron' captured 47.72% of the voting and earned the title of "Best of Jigs & Reels", 'Soldier, Soldier' captured 51.23% of the voting and earned the title of 'Best of Contemporary' The combined song performances for both of these songs totals 13,196 on Highlander Radio and are two of the most popular songs on our website.

Please extend to Burning Bridget Cleary my personally congratulations and the well wishes of the hundreds of members that voted for your songs during the Celtic Radio Music Awards!

Again, our congratulations to the members of Burning Bridget Cleary and with our hopes, that through this award program, we can continue to honor and acknowledge dedicated and inspiring musicians such as Burning Bridget Cleary.
